Executive Summary

Real estate investing has been one of the most profitable ventures known to man. Totalling up the global property value (inclusive of residential, commercial, industrial and agricultural land), the market cap is a staggering value of above US$210 trillion with residential property making up about 75% of it.

However, getting into the market has not been the easiest for the masses for various reasons such as:

- High capital requirements
- Stringent financial regulations to gain access to mortgages
- Restrictions on foreign ownership
- High upfront charges and taxes on resale
- Clear ownership transfer
- Lack of transparency in the entire process framework which is especially so in developing countries

With the introduction of Instant Assets Tokens (IAT), the company aims to make property investment easily available to the masses through the digitization of assets. The company has plans to expand to other developing countries with focus first being placed on the Philippines market.

Other areas which we aim to target include the transparency of the resale and leasing processes. We will also be integrating other utilities for the tokens on the platform which includes paying for furnishing, legal fees and fees for engaging tax auditors.

The company will create our own IAT blockchain and utilize the funds from the ICO to acquire and create the first pool of assets on the IAT blockchain. The platform will also have multiple channels of usage with various partner merchants.

1.0 Introduction

The story of Philippine Real Estate is one that many investors have found promising. Gross yields for property investments in the Philippines are the highest in Asia, making it the “most attractive” location for foreign investors in the region, according to property management and research firm Colliers International.

In the Q2 2017 Global Cap Rate Report released by Colliers International Valuation and Advisory Services (CIVAS), office spaces in the country yielded the highest growth of 7.7 percent compared to other gross yields in Asia which only ranges from three to five percent.

The demand for office space and condominiums have increased because of the continuous growth of the Information Technology and Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) industry.

The company will use the proceeds from the sale of the tokens to purchase real estate in the commercial and residential sector. The properties purchased by IAT will be digitized and organized into legal holding structures. This will serve as the first pool of assets that can be transacted over the IAT blockchain.

The country’s current administration has also committed to various infrastructure, road improvements and major master planning for the coming years. As such, we are expecting growing demand from the population of the Philippines which is over 100 million with another estimated 10 million of Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) who are remitting close to US$30 billion back annually.

Currently, we have an asset management company that is already operational and profitable; as such, the properties acquired will be entrusted to the management company. Discounts will be given to buyers and tenants if tokens are being used in the transactions via the platform.

The company will also handle major project requests such as to digitize a commercial building or mall for resale and will also be looking to work with landowners and developers for project developments.

The company will also incorporate functions where agents/brokers, landlords, and tenants will be reviewed and rated by other users of the platform to promote ethical practices from all parties.

We will encourage the usage of tokens by providing discounts when it is being used for transactions. Examples could include reduction of rental rate or asset management fees.

We will also be giving airdrops of the IA tokens to the first 1000 agents/brokers, unit owners, and prospective tenants to register with the platform to encourage usage, gain traction and boost acceptance of the market. Additional airdrops will be considered if deemed necessary.

IAT plans to take a leading role in all facets of real estate locally and hopefully globally to make this a reality, starting with disrupting the rental and property market and tokenizing large real estate assets.

2.0 The Companies

DigiAssets Pte Ltd

DigiAssets Pte Ltd is a Singapore registered entity and will be the company wholly in charge of the management of Instant Assets Tokens (IAT).

Realty Beacon Philippines Inc.

Realty Beacon Philippines Inc. (RBPI) is a property management company registered in the Philippines and will be managing properties pegged to the IAT efforts discussed in this whitepaper. In the last five years, founders of the company have transacted over one 1 billion pesos worth of properties which essentially lead to the setting up of RBPI.

Compliance

A non-profit organization named Public Company Limited by Guarantee in Singapore will be set up. The main task of the organization is to support the development team and will be the ICO fundraising entity. The registration will be done upon the legal advice being finalized.

The companies will be relying on the small offers exemption under Section 302B of the SFA. This exemption, which provides for an exemption from the authorization requirements mentioned above, relates to “personal offers” of units in a collective investment scheme, and where (among other things) there is a cap on the amount of funds raised.

The Platform Operator will be the operating company for the development of the Platform and the on-boarding of its users, such as the participants, agents/brokers, and various partner companies. The Platform Operator could also focus on the IAT ecosystem development.

3.0 The Problems with Traditional Real Estate Market

Despite the potential profits of the real estate market, buyers face numerous problems and limitations. IAT, to maximize benefits and minimize losses people might incur, aims to solve the following through the adoption of the blockchain technology:

All Round Transactional Costs

Cutting out inflated costs by parties such as developers, taxes, brokers, and agents. The total cost of buying and selling a property in the Philippines is at times inflated to as high as 24% of the property value. We are looking to cut that total costs down by at least half.

Integrity and Security

The decentralized nature of the Blockchain technology ensures that records stored on it cannot be changed or controlled by a single source, thus providing security against malicious attacks such as hacking.

Transparency of Transfer

Information stored on the blockchain is accessible by all which makes the data transparent and immutable. The possibility of frauds and ownership dispute can be almost eliminated with the high degree of transparency.

Time and Costs Savings

The current process of ownership transfer can take months due to the various parties involved and the need to verify the documentation during various stages, usually with the assistance of a lawyer. The blockchain technology will be able to address the above by maintaining a uniform source of information for all the parties that are involved in the transaction. Also, emerging platforms focusing on other functions such as payments can be integrated in future. The project will also be providing a platform for listings.

Restrictions to Foreign Investors

Countries have been known to implement regulations to curb a growing real estate market by imposing restrictions on foreign purchases in an attempt to slow or stop the market from ballooning or forming a bubble.

Take Singapore for example, prices of subsidized government housing have shot through the roof in the last few years to a staggering US$750,000 which has caused the government to implement multiple rounds of cooling measures to curb the market growth.

4.0 The Solutions

With the numerous challenges involving real estate ownership, we have deemed it necessary to find ways to make traditional property investing and management easier for investors.

4.1 Instant Assets Tokens (IAT)

The IA Tokens concept is a form of real estate tokenization and will be released via a process of Initial Coin Offering or ICO on the Ethereum network and will be ERC-20 compatible.

Funds raised from this ICO will be used to develop the IAT blockchain and assets will be acquired to form the initial bulk of properties in the IAT ecosystem. The asset management will be undertaken by our existing management company that is currently operational.

4.2 Native Instant Assets Tokens (NIAT)

The NIAT will be the local token equivalent of the IA Tokens. It will reside within each individual real estate market and is pegged against the country's native currency. As such, each country will have its own NIAT. It will not be minted on its own and can only be purchased using IA Tokens. This is to ensure that end users are not being exposed to the volatility of the cryptocurrency markets.

4.3 Primary Focus

Asset Digitization and Management

One of the biggest factors which property owners are facing in the Philippines is the extremely high all-around costs of a property transaction from the buying to the sale of the property eventually.

Purchasing a property will involve costs such as documentary stamp tax, transfer tax and title registration fee which ranges between 2.25% to 3%. However, if you are buying from a developer, the norm for them is to pass on certain fees and taxes onto the buyer which will increase the total fees to a range of 6% to 12%.

There are also a few smaller charges to be paid upon the completion of the property such as having the connection of water and power supply to be done. One has to also note that property of a certain value will also have a 12% value-added tax (VAT) included in the property price.

Selling a property presents a different set of charges and fees which includes capital gains tax of 6% (charged on the sales price or zonal value whichever is higher) that is essentially a sales tax and agent commission of between 5% to 6%.

As such, all-around transactional costs for a property owner in the Philippines will range between 17% to 24% which is extremely high.

However, if we are able to reduce the total costs drastically by 70% to 90% to a nominal fee, the booming real estate market of the Philippines presents huge potential growth and profitability in the coming years with an excellent administration and commitment to improving infrastructure in the country.

The company will focus on acquiring commercial real estate where demand and the concept of co-working spaces have been increasing over the last few years.

The residential segment acquisition will also be a focus but mainly in terms of acquiring in bulk and focusing on projects within key development areas and Central Business Districts (CBDs) such as Makati, Ortigas and Bonifacio Global City (BGC).

The properties purchased by the company will form the initial asset pool for the IAT ecosystem. The company's management arm will also be providing asset management services for asset owners who wishes to engage us. The rate of engagement will be lowered if transactions are done over the platform using NIAT.

Lastly, the company will also be open in working with landowners and developers in project development.

Individual Owners

A section of the web portal will be catered to individual owners where we aim to break the stronghold of traditional channels such as Airbnb and the various booking sites. By implementing a fee of only 5% on successful reservations, we will significantly increase the rental returns of the owners as the traditional channels charges fees of between 15% to as high as 20%.

A nominal fee will also be applied to each listing with payment via NIAT; this is to avoid owners from listing with inaccurate details of their assets as well as unnecessary price competitions.

Agents/Brokers

Another section of the web portal will be catered to agents/brokers for their listing of assets for sale and lease. Leasing activities here will be only for long term leases to be in line with the country's regulations on short term leases by an agent/broker.

A nominal fee will be applicable for each listing. With the continual adoption of cryptocurrency, we envision that cryptocurrency investors will be looking to transfer some of their crypto wealth to tangible assets such as real estate.

4.4 Backed by Revenue Model

Unlike other ICOs that has its value pegged to the future profitability and sustainability of their business model, the IAT ICO is based on an existing profitable business model where we have the actual business operations already up and running.

The IAT ecosystem is set to revolutionize the traditional real estate market. In fact, this has been a largely untapped segment in the cryptocurrency market.

5.0 IA Tokens Utilities & Benefits

The IAT ecosystem encourages the use of NIAT for various benefits and this section shall explain in detail the different channels:

Rental Payment

Tenants are encouraged to use NIAT for paying rent and rate reduction will be provided.

Partner Merchants

The company will be looking to bring in various merchant partners into the IAT ecosystem to increase the avenues of usage. One such merchant is “Beacon Cloth Care” who is providing laundry services, there are currently 2 outlets in Makati and the merchant has plans to expand the operation to a total of 100 outlets by the end of 2018. NIAT will be used to prevent volatility in the cost of the merchant’s goods and services.

Purchase of Assets

NIAT can be used to purchase assets and resides within the IAT ecosystem.

Payment for Asset Management Services

Tokens holders can opt to utilise NIAT to make payment for our asset management services. Further discount on the fees will be given to encourage the use of NIAT.

Payment for Furnishing

Tokens holders can opt to utilise NIAT to make payment for purchasing items for furnishing their asset. Further discount on the fees will be given to encourage the use of NIAT. NIAT will be used to prevent volatility in the cost of the merchant's goods and services.

Listing of Assets for Sale or Rent

Tokens holders can opt to use NIAT for paying listing fees when they list the assets on the web portal. The company will provide discounts on the fees if NIAT are being used. Listing may be initiated by either agents, brokers or individual owners.

Receiving Rental/Sale Proceeds

Asset owners can opt to receive rental or sale proceeds in the form of NIAT. The IAT ecosystem will also allow the asset owner to provide a slight discount to the tenant or buyer as an incentive for utilizing NIAT for the transaction.

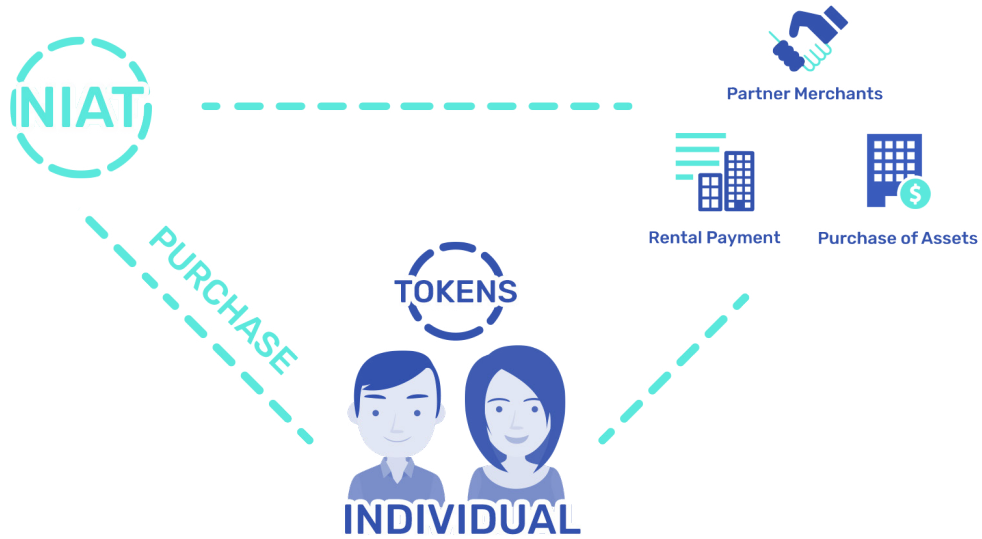

Receiving Commission for Agents/Brokers

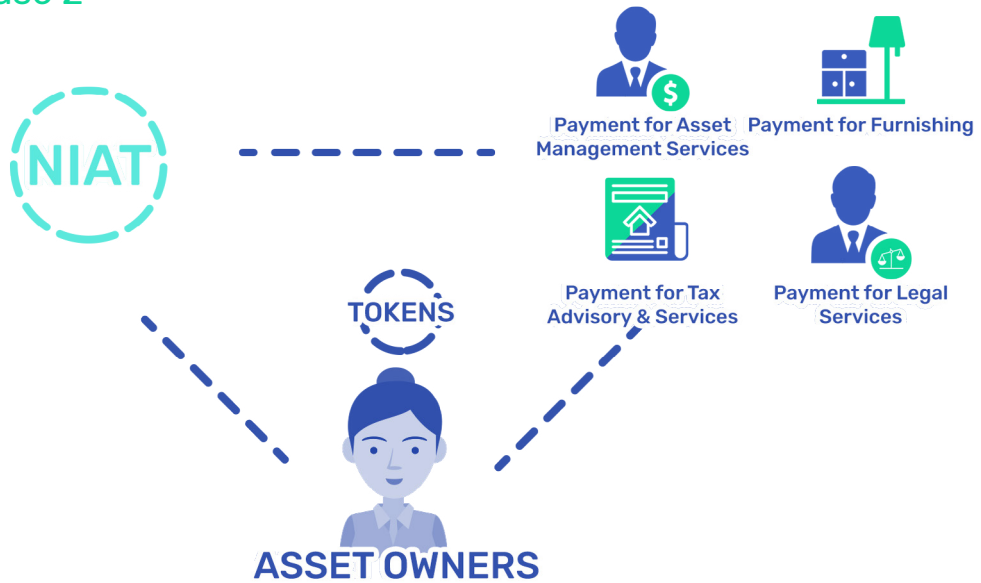

Agents/Brokers can opt to receive their commission in the form of NIAT. The IAT ecosystem will also allow the agent/broker to provide a slight discount to their clients as an incentive for utilizing NIAT for the transaction.

6.0 Use Cases

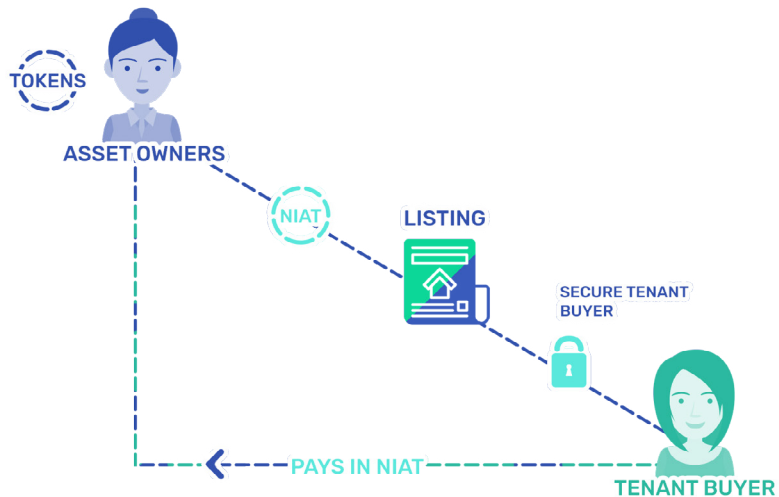

Use Case 1

Use Case 2

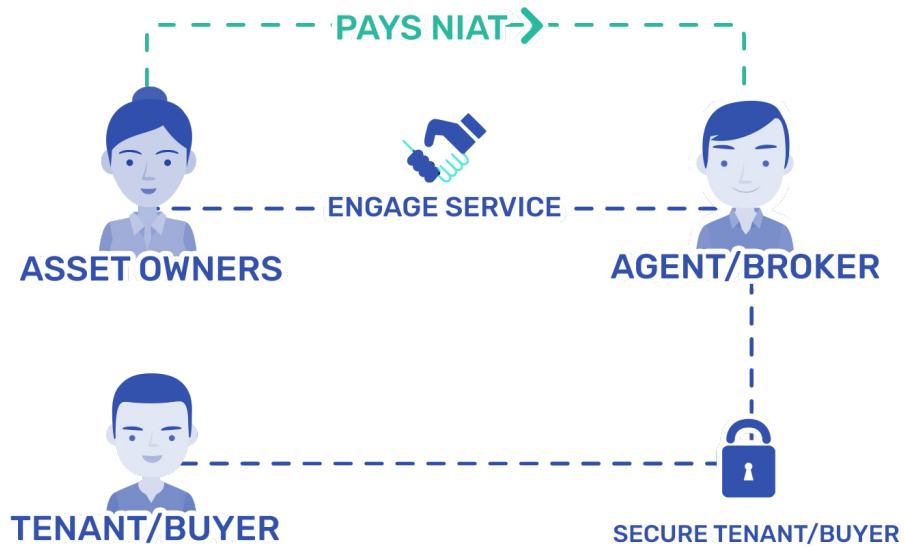

Use Case 3

Use Case 4

Use Case 5

7.0 Revenue Model

Every acquisition that the company makes will focus on distressed, new projects, developments or purchase from existing owners who are motivated to sell. This is to ensure that the assets acquired are undervalued and that will also increase the rental revenue of the operation.

Leasing of Company Owned Assets

Revenue will be generated from the leasing activities of the assets under management which will be operational upon acquisition. Our existing property management company, Realty Beacon Philippines Inc. allows the leasing activities to be put in place almost immediately upon acquisition. The company will also be expanding the team to more effectively manage the newly acquired assets.

Selling of Company Owned Assets

The company may look at reselling a small portion of the assets under management which displays high profitability such as distress properties or joint development with landowners.

Property Management Services

The company will be promoting our property management services on the platform and additional revenue will be generated via add-on services such as the furnishing of the units.

Individual Owners

The company will be taking 5% of successful rental cases to ensure profitability and still remain advantageous for owners to continue using the platform. Channels and platforms such as Airbnb generally take about 15% to 20% from the owners.

Agent/Broker Listing

The company will be generating revenue when agents/brokers utilizes NIAT on the IAT ecosystem for their client's property listings.

8.0 The IA Tokens Ecosystem

We want to create an ecosystem where token holders freely trade and interact with other token holders and as well as investors who are looking to acquire IA Tokens for their portfolio.

As such, the company commits to acquire listing with various exchanges so as to facilitate the trading and liquidity of the tokens.

8.1 Liquidity of IA Tokens

We look towards maintaining the high liquidity of the IA tokens by creating various channels of token utility to reduce the supply of the tokens and acquiring quality properties to be digitized into the ecosystem of IAT.

8.2 Liquidity of NIAT

We will be reserving a portion of the funds raised to form a liquidity pool for the purchase of NIAT using the IA Tokens.

9.0 Token Economics and Timeline

IAT will be issued via a Token sale with a total supply of 4,500,000,000 IA Tokens. The price of the IA Tokens will be pegged to US$0.01 per token, ETH and BTC will be accepted.

Value of tokens for sale will be US$20 million (inclusive of Early Investors, Pre-sale and Crowd-sale) with distribution according to the table below. Unsold IA Tokens (cap at 40,000,000 IA Tokens) will be given to charity organizations and remaining IA Tokens will be burned. Pre-Sale will commence in early April with the crowd sale subsequently commencing in late April.

Reserved Tokens

The allocation of reserved tokens is targeted at increasing the overall portfolio value of the company by acquiring more assets mainly targeted at the co-working space segment. However, the reserved tokens will only be released and made available for usage when assets acquired from utilising the funds of the initial tokens sale has reached a minimum of 50% occupancy rate.
